

Physics 703
Colloquium Evaluation Form

Your name:

Talk date:

Talk Title:

Speaker's name:

In a couple of sentences, what was/were the key point(s) of the talk?

What was the most interesting thing you learned from the talk?

Scientifically, what was the strongest aspect of the work presented?

Scientifically, what was the weakest aspect of the work presented?

What two (or more if you have more) questions do you have for the speaker (don't be afraid to ask these in the talk)?

Overall was this a well-presented talk?

What were three good things that the speaker did in giving this talk? How did they make the talk more effective?

What were three bad things the speaker did in giving this talk? How did these things hinder the ability to convey information?